

2015 Schedule:
City of Round Rock Partial Tax Exemption Program for Historically Significant Properties

DATE	ITEM
April 30, 2015	Last day property owners may submit applications to Williamson Central Appraisal District for partial tax exemption.
April 17, 2015 through May 20, 2015	Historic Preservation Commissioners will be visiting properties to conduct an inspection. See www.roundrocktexas.gov/historic-tax-exemption/
May 19, 2015	Historic Preservation Commission to consider recommendation regarding 2015 Historic District Property Tax Exemption applications.
(If necessary) - Special Called HPC Meeting(s) prior to Council consideration	May be necessary for HPC to approve some renovations or re-inspect some properties prior to Council consideration of ordinance. Historic Preservation Commission to consider recommendation regarding 2015 Historic District Property Tax Exemption applications.
June 25, 2015	City Council to consider an ordinance granting a partial exemption from ad valorem taxes for certain qualified historically significant properties located within the city limits of Round Rock. (First Reading) Public hearing will be held. Mailed notice sent to property owners 15 days prior to hearing.
July 9, 2015	City Council to consider an ordinance granting a partial exemption from ad valorem taxes for certain qualified historically significant properties located within the city limits of Round Rock. (Second Reading)
July 31, 2015	Notification letters sent out to property owners by end of July concerning granting of partial tax exemption and any maintenance issues noted during the inspection. Issues noted must be addressed prior to April 30, 2016 in order to continue to be eligible for this program.
August 28, 2015	Deadline to contact Planning Department if you do not agree with items noted in the 2015 inspection or you need to further discuss the maintenance of your building to satisfy the requirements of this program. This will not affect 2015 application approval.